7. In answer to the question raised by the Councillor it may be stated that the Excise Divisional Officers of the status of Amildars now exercise the powers delegated to Asst Commrs under Para I(a)(b)(c)(d)(e) Perhaps the authority for this appears to be that these powers relate to departmental discipline and are therefore taken to have been delegated by the Excise and the Deputy Commissioners to them. But the power vested in 67 of the Regn has to be has to be delegated under a rule framed by Govt in exercise of the powers under sec 5 of the Regn. The Excise Commr may perhaps be consulted in the matter.

Take a final enquiry of the Excise Commr on the point raised by the Councillor. SH 3/1/11

8. As regards the draft now proposed by the Excise Commr it is submitted that it requires revision inasmuch as the Govt exercise the powers under sec 5(1) of the Regn to make a rule prescribing that the power under sec 67 of the Regulation might

No — the draft is all right. Govt invest the powers under sec 67. Sec 5(1) g the Regn confers general power on Govt to make rules in certain matters. SH
